DESTINATION VIENNA

Vienna is the world's capital of music , Vienna Philharmonic and the Vienna Boys' Choir are world famous, while the National Opera and the Musikverein Golden Hall are among the best concert halls in the world. A tradition that endures as all kinds of music festivals and events take place throughout the year. Vienna is the home of great composers like Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Strauss, Brahms and Haydn. Austria is the place where the golden age of classical music had its splendid Renaissance.

During your stay, take a musical journey to see Vienna's unique sound museum - located within the historic palace of the Archduke Charles in the old town. Look “over the shoulder” of the great composers of the past as they compose their music; meet with the best musicians of the moment and take a look at the future of music created by computer.

Vienna has a small size historic centre embracing a huge amount of monuments and stunning artwork. The centre of Vienna -Old Vienna- still retains its medieval layout, where the beautiful cathedral of St. Stephen, stands. The distinguished district of Hofburg, former residence of rulers is now home to embassies, offices and elegant shops. Hoffburg remains the most exclusive area of Vienna, and the location of the Burgtheater, the most prestigious theatre of the German language. You will be impressed by the Schönbrunn Palace, a replica of Versailles in Paris, and the Belvedere, summer residence of Prince Eugene, now home to major art museums. See the house where Sigmund Freud worked for nearly 50 years and explore the Natural History Museum and the Kunsthistorisches, the Museum of Art History. Visit the Spanish Riding School, have fun on the Giant Ferris Wheel in the Prater, or relax in one of the famous cafes while savouring one of their delicious tarts and cakes ... Vienna is fantastic!

Pack your bags and get ready to enjoy this enriching experience in the heart of European classical music!

OPTIONAL EXCURSIONS FROM VIENNA

Vienna's outskirts are especially attractive: romantic landscapes and picturesque villages invite hiking.

Take a boat trip on the "Wachau" river, along a particularly beautiful stretch of the Danube Valley. You will be amazed by the intensity and variety of landscapes: view the Benedictine Abbey of Melk, which stands majestically on a high rock on the river, the wine villages of Spitz, Dürnstein and Weißenkirchen, surrounded by the hills on which grapes mature to make fine wines.

The southern Vienna Woods can be visited in a half-day tour; do not miss the Cistercian Abbey of Heiligenkreuz, and the modest hunting lodge in Mayerling, which receives visitors from around the world attracted by the mysterious history of the death of Crown Prince Rudolf of Hapsburg. You will also be delighted with the idyllic spa town of Baden (20 km south of Vienna) with its sulphurous thermal baths, casino and racetrack.

Lake Neusiedl to the southeast is about one hour from Vienna. This is the largest steppe lake in Central Europe and Austria's largest lake, located in the foreground of the small Hungarian plain, surrounded by a thick cane grove which shelters a unique bird life. The wine villages around the lake such as Rust or Mörbisch, have a special charm. Operetta performances on a stage on the lake are held here during the summer.

The Twin City Liner on the Danube will take you in just 75 minutes from Vienna to Bratislava, the centre of the capital of Slovakia, especially impressive for its romantic old town and its fortress.
