Repubblica di San Marino
Ufficio di Stato per il Turismo

The Republic of San Marino, with an area of only 61 km², is situated between the Italian regions of Romagna and Marche, only a few kilometers from the Adriatic sea coast. According to the legend,

San Marino was founded in 301 A.D. by Dalmatian stonemason Marino. He came here to hide from the Roman emperor Diocletian in the period of Christian persecution. Since that time this small state has been proud of its liberty and in the past being able to constantly defend its independence.

The Republic of San Marino is not only one of the smallest states in the world, but it is also the oldest state. On July 7, 2008 the Republic of San Marino, thanks to the unique character of its history and institutional heritage, was given an outstanding recognition by UNESCO's Committee: the inscription in the prestigious List of World Heritage Sites.
